

SSYRA Battle of the Books!

Each year, SJCSD elementary schools compete in a Battle of the Books. This competition tests knowledge and recall of the Sunshine State Young Readers Award (SSYRA) books. Students work together in a team of five to identify and match quotes to book titles in a timed contest.

Would you like to be a part of our team? Are you enjoying reading the SSYRA books? Do you have what it takes? If so, you may want to try out for the Battle of the Books team!

Step 1: You must be in grades 3-5.

Step 2: You must read and comprehend SSYRA books. Each time you complete a book from the 2017-2018 SSYRA list, take a quiz. These quizzes are available in the Media Center and can be taken during your weekly media rotation. You must read and pass quizzes on a minimum of three books by March 15th to be eligible to try out for the team.

An informational meeting will be scheduled after March 15, and all students who have completed three or more books will be invited. At that time, we will discuss after school practice opportunities in a Book Club setting, and a final SSYRA quote quiz. Learn more and then decide if you would like to try out for the Battle Team.

READ! READ! READ! And consider trying out for the first ever PCE Battle of the Books Team!
