Presentation-SRF Ballot: Mrs. Wolfe shared the updated ballot that now includes the examples. The options were shared aloud along with these specific numbers. Ms. Holloman made a motion to approve the updated ballot and Mrs. Fletcher seconded.

Principal's Report: Clubs that were approved will be beginning later in March. This will include cooking, board games, drawing, etc. Some clubs will be available for K-2. The ratio will be approximately 14:1 and will be on a first come, first served basis sign-up which will go out on School Messenger. Tutoring has been opened up to 126 students. This will begin next Tuesday, the 18th. A big thank-you to PTA for being so supportive of our school. They are really supporting our resource teachers with funds from the Puma Power Course. They also just held a free movie event.

SAC Funds Request: We revisited the SAC Request from Coach Moores with the correct amount of $490. Kalli Kol made a motion to approve. Patty Brown seconded.

PTA Update: A no-cost movie night with great attendance! Valentine Grams will be going out on Thursday.

McTeacher Night at McDonalds on 2/27-Thursday

Mother-Son event on 3-14 at Bollero in Mandarin

Daddy-Daughter Dance April 12th

Board Meeting Monday February 17th

Good of the Group:

A question was asked regarding funds for SAC for the future use based on each year's ballot.

Mr. Morgan clarified. A question was asked regarding the swimming lessons for 2nd grade and supervision or needed volunteers. Morgan shared that coach attends, all teachers attend, lifeguards are present and instructors are in the water, so additional volunteers would not be needed.

Meeting was adjourned at

Motion to adjourn – Trish Fletcher made a motion to adjourn, 2nd by Elizabeth Soto.
